A Bill has been filed in the court here against the Hudson Bay Railway Co. by the West Cumberland Iron and Steel Co. plaintiffs, to hold bonds of railway to the amount of $140,000 taken as security for steel rails and other material furnished them. They allege that the railway company is insolvent, and ask that receivers be appointed and bond holders declared entitled to first mortgage on the road.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 6.—Jeff. Davis is dead.

Rooming.

Two hundred and eighty-three thousand dollars was expended in building in Calgary during this year. Sale of town lots, $200,000.

Royal Condemned.

The Toronto Mail says Royal's conduct in the Northwest has done more than create a dead lock. It has shaken public confidence in his sagacity.

Sleeping changes in the tariff are expected next session.

Montreal aldermen are here on a visit.

OTTAWA, Dec. 3.—L. A. Catalier has been promoted to under-Secretary of State.

Davis, Prince Albert, Sask. To be notaries public—Geo. H. Gibson, Battledore, Sask.; Wm. J. Poyer, Duck Lake, Sask.

DUCK LAKE.

Sleighting is first class.

There is considerable more for coming in this winter than last and a far better quality.

H. Mitchell, M.L.A., is expected home by the next stage.

It is reported the H. B. Co. will open a store here shortly.

The railway men are bringing in large quantities of supplies, including grain and beef.

Dr. Stewart leaves this week for Green Lake and other points north, on a professional tour.

H. Kelly, of Elmscourt Farm, lost a valuable mare last week through inflammation of the lungs.

The Metis of Batoche and vicinity will give a dinner to D. H. Macdowall, Esq., M.P., on the 10th inst.

The Snake Plain grist mill passed through town on Wednesday last. We understand the buildings are now ready for it.

Market quotations show wheat, 90c; hay, $10; potatoes, $1 25; eggs, 40c; beef, $7 50 by the quarter; pork, $8; wood, $2.

A. J. McNeill came in from Snake Plain on Wednesday and reports Mrs. McNeill and Miss Finlayson doing well. He expects to be able to move to Battledore during the month.

A meeting is to be held at Batoche shortly to urge the building of the railway through that place. Such a thing would be almost impossible and would be far from the interests of the company.

About one half of Contractor Madigan's men and teams passed through town on Wednesday last on their way to the Pines. Mr. Keith thinks he will have all the timber cut on the south side of the railway in six weeks.

We note with pleasure that our enterprising contemporary THE WINNIPEG SIFTING has added some new and attractive features, which render it a peer of the best eastern weeklies. SIFTING, under the present management, has grown steadily in public favor, till now it stands as the only distinctly Canadian journal of its class. We will send THE TIMES and SIFTING for one year to any address for $2 50.

GENERAL NEWS.

Ernest Wiman made a vigorous address on "Closer Trade relations between Canada and the United States" in the Kingston city hall last Saturday evening. He had a very large audience and was cheered to the echo. Mayor Thompson presided, and Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, Dr. Grant, Sir Rich. Cartwright, Judge Price, Dr. Mackenzie and other prominent citizens were on the platform. Mr. Wiman spoke for two hours and kept the audience in attention. Principal Grant moved a vote of thanks, and in doing so lauded public meetings as the best means for public education. He did not agree with everything said, but it was Wiman's night and he was glad to hear him. He would say good-bye to Wiman, but he would like to have a convenient reason to reply to his arguments. He urged careful consideration of the views expressed and not the bolting at once of everything said. He believed in argument from all sides. D. A. Givens seconded the resolution and it was heartily adopted. Mr. Wiman afterwards left for New York.

The season of navigation on the St. Lawrence has closed, Le Lectrique having left for Quebec on the 24th ult. and no other vessel being in Montreal port.

Smallpox has disappeared from the Pelee Islands.

At a meeting of the bar in Montreal lately it was unanimously decided to urge the Government to appoint Judge Johnson as Chief Justice.

The prospectus of the Canadian Dead Meat Co., of London, Eng., was issued lately. The capital is £300,000 sterling; ordinary shares. The object is to develop trade in Canadian dead meat. Three Rivers being the Canadian head quarters. There is a fairly strong directorate, including the Lord Mayor's firm. Sir Hector Langevin is on the Canadian Board of Management. Mr. Bender is founder.

It is stated that parliament, among other things, will be asked next session to deal with the Mormon question. The wish of their colony in the Northwest simply marvelous, and those who pretend to know, say that polygamy openly exists.

News has reached New York that the Pacific mail steamer China, the newest and handsomest of the line, has gone ashore at Yokohama, on the way from San Francisco.

The trial of Moussa Bey, the Kurdish chief accused of maltreating the Christian population, has commenced. The proceedings are public. The specified charges against Moussa are murder, arson and pillage.

WEDDING BELLS.

One of the gayest events ever witnessed in Snake Plain occurred last Tuesday, the 25th November, when a double wedding was the order of the day. At Armadale Mission were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Louisa Dreaver to Mr. Wm. Chaffee, and Miss Maggie Bird to Mr. John Dreaver. The brides and bridesmaids were suitably attired for the occasion, and after the nuptial knots being tied by the Rev. J. McKay, all the prominent people of the district accompanied the two interesting couples to Mr. James Dreaver's, where festivities were kept up in regular North West style. After the breakfast, which was a sumptuous affair, and would do credit to any eastern city in Canada, the cloth was removed, and speeches, appropriate to the occasion, were made. This was succeeded by a dance which was kept up with great merriment till day light when all returned to their respective homes, well pleased with the manner in which Mr. Dreaver, the father of one of the brides and one of the grooms, kept up his reputation for hospitality.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balm was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; cleanses the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the inflamed parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is its immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balm will prevent it if only taken in time. SNAKE PLAIN ITEMS.

Rev. John McKay, of Armadale Mission, has been confined to bed for a few days with erysipelas in the leg, but is improving.

Messrs. Thos. McKay and W.R. Gunn, of Prince Albert, arrived here on Saturday, Nov. 30, and remained until Monday. They were the guests of Indian Agent Finlayson. Mr. McKay brought thirty-one head of beef cattle for the Indian Department and these are now being converted into beef.

Saturday being the anniversary of the patron saint of Scotland, and a select few of Auld Scotia having met together at Mr. Finlayson's, the day was duly honored, although there was no "haggis," and the mountain dew was wanting—no grog being allowed on Indian Reserve, and Scotchmen—in any case—not being partial thereto. Those present succeeded in making the "hour" wing their flight with pleasure. Songs and dancing were among the features of the evening's enjoyment, and this was kept up with zest until their inherent respect for the "Sawboth" warned the Caledonians present that midnight was approaching.

Mrs. McNeill and Miss Finlayson, who were seriously injured some time ago, are both progressing rapidly towards recovery. Mrs. McNeill is still confined to her room, but is expected to be able to be around shortly.

VOLUME VIII.

With the present number THE TIMES enters on the eighth year of its existence. Since the first issue was published in 1882 very great changes have taken place, not only in this town and district, but in the whole Northwest. There has been a steady onward progress, which still continues, and in which the Press of the country has played a very important part. We think that some credit can justly be claimed by THE TIMES for the advancement of the general welfare. Some measure of credit is due to us for the charges for the better that have taken place in our circumstances, and it must be admitted by all that this paper has been a great boon to Prince Albert.
There are those, as a matter of course, who have not always agreed with the stand we have taken, at times, on public questions. Such a thing as being able to please everybody would be an unprecedented occurrence in the annals of journalism. However short we may have come in our endeavors to cater to the tastes of our readers, we have ever held one aim in view, namely, to advance as much as in us lay the interests of this district. We have to thank the people of Prince Albert for their very liberal support during the past seven years, and to express the hope that we may continue to receive as large a share of their patronage in the future. Our object will continue to be to advocate the best interests of the country, and as well to enrich our coffers, although we have signally failed to accomplish anything in the last mentioned direction so far. It has been no easy matter to carry on a newspaper here in the past for many reasons, and we advise those who consider it to be so to try their hand at it for a while.
Material and labor have been expensive and outside news hard to get, but with the present improved state of affairs we trust that many of the difficulties which heretofore existed will pass away.

THE N. P.

Mayor Knowles of this town has been interviewing Sir John Macdonald. There is nothing out of the ordinary in this. Sir John Macdonald is interviewed every day by all classes of people, and this particular interview would not be noticed except for the reasons disclosed in the following despatch which we received to-day:—

WINNIPEG, Dec. 5.—In an interview with Sir John, Mayor Knowles, of Prince Albert said the Northwest could not endure the National Policy, to which Sir John replied that annexation was the only alternative. Knowles then retorted that he might expect the Northwest to choose the alternative some day.

We are at present inclined to believe that this despatch is a fabrication or that Mr. Knowles has not been correctly reported, or that Mr.
Knowles was joking. If he is correctly reported and really meant what he is reported to have said, it might not be out of place here to ask him when he discovered that the Northwest could not endure the National Policy? The inference to be drawn from Mr. Knowles' remarks is that he, also, cannot endure the N. P. And we may also be pardoned for asking him when he got that way? If we remember rightly the National Policy has been in force in the Northwest for over ten years, and the Northwest had its first opportunity of saying what it thought of that Policy after eight years experience of its working and effects, and the verdict was overwhelmingly in favor of its Policy.
We have no evidence that the feeling has changed one whit, and we would ask Mr. Knowles what evidence he has? None; not one particle; and Mr. Knowles—if we are not mistaken—endorsed the National Policy by his vote at the general election in 1887. What has induced him to change his opinion? This question he can best answer, and perhaps the day is not far distant when he will be afforded an opportunity of doing so. Mr. Knowles states that the Territories will have annexation in preference to the present Fiscal Policy of the Government. This is first we have heard of such a sentiment existing in the Northwest. But we believe that none such does exist, except in the bosoms of a very few individuals, and Mr. Knowles may be one of those few. If he is an annexation-ist, then the public should know it, for no one flaunting those colors should hold any office of a public nature in Canada. We may refer to this matter again, but for the present will refrain from any further comments. We may be giving undue prominence to this thing, and the wisest policy might be to treat such matters with the contempt they deserve, and would certainly have done so in this case were it not that the gentleman of whom we are speaking occupies the important position of mayor of this town. It is very satisfactory to know that Mr. Knowles does not represent the Northwest, and has no authority to speak for it; and it is eminently pleasing to reflect that his sentiments are not held by the people of those Territories.
